

1. [REDACTED]: A small, invertebrate animal with two body regions, usually four pairs of jointed legs and no wings.
 - a. BONUS: EXAMPLE = [REDACTED]
 - b. BONUS: EXAMPLE = [REDACTED]
2. [REDACTED]: Measurement of the delivery rate of application equipment.
3. [REDACTED]: An organism having more than one adult form. Multiple sizes.
 - a. BONUS: EXAMPLE = [REDACTED]
4. [REDACTED]: "Sharing one's table."
5. [REDACTED]: Pregnant or carrying eggs.
6. [REDACTED]: An organism that transmits a disease or parasite from one animal to another.
 - a. BONUS: EXAMPLE = [REDACTED]
7. [REDACTED]: A substance that lures pests to traps or to poison bait stations.
8. [REDACTED]: A substance used to counteract the effects of pesticide poisoning.
9. [REDACTED]: The middle section of the body of an insect, between the head and abdomen. This section bears the legs and wings.
10. [REDACTED]: The fused head and thorax of spiders and other chelicerates.